Dear Stan:

I am very distressed to learn from [redacted] that you are hospitalized once again. From a distance I have followed the progress of your valiant efforts to get back on your feet since your first attack in [redacted]. These things always take time and we must expect occasional setbacks which retard the progress.

25X1

I want you to know that all of us are pulling for you and wishing you the best luck for a quick recovery. I am sure that you are receiving the best possible medical attention that is available in the United States. My personal thoughts and wishes are with you, and I trust that you will be back with us before too long.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
